Jesus as he concluded his core instructions to his first disciples:

Therefore everyone who hears these words of mine and puts them into practice is like a wise man who built his house on the rock.

But everyone who hears these words of mine and does not put them into practice is like a foolish man who built his house on sand.

Matthew 7:24 & 26 (NIV)

Jesus as he commissioned the Twelve:

All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age.

Matthew 28:18-20 (NIV)

Jesus to anybody within earshot:

Take my yoke upon you and learn from me ...

Matthew 11:29 (NIV)

School of Christian Ministry

The School of Christian Ministry is a plan for equipping Christian disciples for Christian service. It is a three-year curriculum in Adult Christian Education. It is presented here in outline as a map toward a destination. It is offered to the Body of Christ as an “amen” to congregations already on the way, as a guide to congregations nearly ready to set out, and as a call to congregations not quite ready. The destination is toward becoming the church described in Ephesians 4:11-16. There it says that it was Christ Jesus our Lord who gave some to be pastors and teachers ...

... to prepare God’s people for works of service, so that the body of Christ may be built up until we all reach unity in the faith and in the knowledge of the Son of God and become mature, attaining to the whole measure of the fullness of Christ.

Then we will no longer be infants, tossed back and forth by the waves, and blown here and there by every wind of teaching and by the cunning and craftiness of men in their deceitful scheming. Instead, speaking the truth in love, we will in all things grow up into him who is the Head, that is, Christ. From him the whole body, joined and held together by every supporting ligament, grows and builds itself up in love, and each part does its work.

Ephesians 4:11-16 (NIV)

To be on that journey, your congregation must have, or must develop, a leadership team of pastors and teachers who are themselves faithful, seasoned disciples of Jesus—the kind of pastors and teachers described in 1 Timothy 3:1-7 and Titus 1:6-9. The School of Christian Ministry has been designed to promote, develop, and nurture just such a leadership team.

This program is for adult disciples of Jesus. The focus is on learning from Jesus the skills necessary for full participation in his mission and ministry. The curriculum comes from the Bible, read from a New Testament perspective, firmly grounded in the Gospels.

Here’s how to get started:

1. Recruit teachers who are committed disciples of Jesus. They don’t need to know everything about Jesus’ mission and ministry, but they must know something. And they must be willing and ready to share the something they know while they continue to learn.
2. Expect excellence. Set realistic, high expectations for mastering the skills to be learned.
3. If it’s already clear to you how to use this outline as an action plan, work the plan. Otherwise, let me know how I can help. Turn to the last page in this packet—the page titled, “Support, Fees & Contact Information.”

And then prepare for the time of your life!

School of Christian Ministry

FAQ's

Great Expectations

Q. Is it realistic to imagine that the School of Christian Ministry could become our congregation's accepted program for leadership development?

A. Yes. Your congregation needs the School of Christian Ministry—or something very much like it. Imagination is a powerful spiritual force. Whether it's a bridge or a planet or a way to make peace, nothing can come into existence apart from imagination.

Evangelism

Q. Under "Ministry," why the focus on welcome to the stranger, good news to the poor, and the gift of healing? Why not an emphasis on evangelism?

A. Evangelism, telling the good news about Jesus Christ, is not only emphasized, it is emphasized as foundational. In the context of welcome to the stranger, good news to the poor, and the gift of healing, the Christian message is truly good news. In any other context it is only good advice or a good line.

Course Descriptions

Q. To qualify as a teacher in the School of Christian Ministry you must submit a syllabus to the Endorsement Committee for each course you desire to teach. Isn't there already a syllabus provided for each course?

A. Yes. For any course, a teacher may choose to adopt the recommended syllabus. The teacher may also choose, with the approval of the Endorsement Committee, to revise the syllabus or write a new one. Each teacher brings to the classroom a unique blend of life experiences, interests, training, skills, and personality. The recommended syllabus is intended to spark the imagination, not limit it.

Lesson Plans

Q. In addition to a syllabus, each course requires twelve lesson plans. Are lesson plans available from Holly House?

A. No, the success of the program depends upon qualified teachers—teachers who know their subjects, who also know how to prepare a lesson plan. For help with teacher training or program design, contact Dean Summers. Email: deansummers@q.com.

Recommended Reading

Q. Each syllabus includes one book listed as the text and several others listed for further study. Are students expected to read all the books listed?

A. That might be appropriate under certain circumstances. Ordinarily, students would be expected to read only the one book listed as the text, and the teacher would make available the list of other books as recommendations for further study. The books listed do serve to indicate the level of expertise required to teach a course. A qualified teacher does not have to have read every book listed, but should know a subject well enough to appreciate the significance and usefulness of the books listed.

Support

Q. What if we have more questions or need help getting started?
